THE CITY

One of the key cities in the Yangtze River Delta, Suzhou is a renowned cultural, historic and tourist city. Suzhou was one of the few cities in China to escape the ravages of the Cultural Revolution and its famous gardens survived almost intact. The gardens embody the harmonious principles of Chinese garden construction which dictate that gardens should attempt to create a microcosm of the universe in a confined space. The intimate gardens are particularly pleasant on a misty day and Suzhou’s narrow streets and lanes can be very romantic and relaxing.

PLACES AROUND TOWN

TIGER HILL
Among the various places of historical interest in Suzhou, Tiger Hill is the most famous. For more than 2000 years, the hill has been regarded as a beautiful and natural landmark of the city.

THE HUMBLE ADMINISTRATOR’S GARDEN
This famous and beautiful garden supposedly cost a boatload of silver and took sixteen years to build. Tours through the garden start every five to ten minutes and include a “Chinese marriage,” a look at carved tree roots, and even a boat ride through the garden canals.

PULP FICTION BAR
A friendly Australian bar on Shi Quan Jie, Pulp Fiction is a great place to go and meet Westerners and locals alike. Take some time to relax, shoot some pool, or play a game of darts.
